

Confucius Institute and the Asia Pacific Financial Markets
Research Center, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa

present a public talk by

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII AT MĀNOA
SHIDLER
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
• International Excellence •

Dan Piccuta

Deputy Chief of Mission
U.S. Embassy, Beijing

“U.S.–China Relations under the New Administration”

Monday, April 6, 5:30–7:00 p.m.

Plaza Club, 900 Fort Street Mall #2000
Honolulu, HI 96813; Tel: 521-8905

Dan Piccuta, America's senior career diplomat in China and deputy to the U.S. Ambassador, will discuss the momentum in the U.S.–China political and economic relationship under the new U.S. administration, and the impact of the financial crisis on our bilateral ties. Mr. Piccuta, a Kailua-Kona resident, has served as Deputy Chief of Mission, and, in the Ambassador's absence, as Chargé d'Affaires, since May 2007.

Cost: $20 general admission;
$15 for members of sponsoring organizations;
$10 for academics and students.
Reception will follow presentation.

RSVP: 956-8891, or e-mail to china@hawaii.edu by April 3.
Space is limited; please RSVP soon. Payment will be accepted at the door.

Co-sponsors of this event: Center for International Business Education & Research (CIBER), Shidler College of Business, UHM ❖ Pacific and Asian Affairs Council (PAAC) ❖ Hong Kong.China.Hawaii Chamber of Commerce (HKCHcc).

Parking: $3 with validation at Pioneer Plaza Building. DIRECTIONS: From Ewa: Follow H-1 East and take the Pali exit and turn right. Turn right at the next light onto Vineyard Blvd. and then left onto Nu'uaniu Street. Follow Nu'uaniu to Merchant and take a left. Cross over Bethel Street, parking on the left. From Diamond Head: Follow H-1 West and take the Vineyard Blvd. exit and follow to Nu'uaniu. Take a left on Nu'uaniu. Follow above directions. From Ala Moana Blvd. and Nimitz Highway: Take Bethel off Nimitz Highway to first light, take a right, parking on the left.

The Confucius Institute at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa is a part of the University's Center for Chinese Studies. For further information on this talk, please call 956-8891, or e-mail: china@hawaii.edu.