

Legal Aspects of Doing Business in China

Featuring
Audry Li (Li Hong)
Partner of Concord & Partners

Audry Li

Friday, February 11, 2005
1:00-3:00 p.m.
Room 210, JAAMS
6660 Hawai'i Kai Drive
$25/person

$20/person for Chamber members

Ms. Li is a Chinese lawyer based in Shanghai with 16 years practical legal experience in foreign direct investment, international business transactions and dispute resolution. She has advised a substantial number of international clients on China operations, project structuring, business transactions, financing, mergers and acquisition as well as intellectual property protection and dispute resolution. Ms. Li has a master of law degree from New York University in corporate law and also from Wuhan University of China in international economic law. She was a 2003 Fellow of Young Leaders Forum of National Committee on US-China Relations based in New York. She has been a speaker at the Asia Society, New York University Law School, and Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce on FDI topics.

Presented in partnership by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce and JAAMS

JAAMS

Legal Aspects of Doing Business in China

RSVP BY: FEBRUARY 9, 2005

Name(s) of Attendee(s) (please print) _____

Name of Company/Organization _____

Mailing Address _____

Phone/Fax/E-mail _____

Enclosed is my check for $ _____ for _____ reservations. ($25/person; $20/person for Chamber members)

Please make check payable to JAAMS.

Charge my VISA/MC # _____ Amount _____ Expiration Date _____

Cardholder Name _____ Signature _____

Please return form with check or credit card information to:
JAAMS, 6660 Hawaii Kai Drive, Honolulu, HI 96825
Phone: 396-7163 Fax: 396-7111 Email: ychun@jaims.org