Within a span of a century, we have shifted from one paradigm to another. During this change, acclaimed author John Naisbitt has kept one step ahead. What does he have to say about the 21st Century?

Naisbitt will present material from his latest book, The Elephant in the Boa Constrictor (to be published in 2005), and will cover two of the most common questions asked of him: How do we recognize new trends? What are the new Megatrends? Naisbitt’s future mindsets allow him to perceive new trends as they evolve. At this special event, be among the first to learn about Naisbitt’s future mindsets and about how you can develop your own mindsets to thrive personally and professionally in these turbulent times.

In 1982, Naisbitt’s book Megatrends became a runaway sensation, spending 60 weeks on the New York Times best-seller list. Today, Naisbitt is recognized by many as the world’s foremost trends forecaster, and he regularly consults and advises major corporations and firms around the globe. He has 15 honorary doctorates, and in his 40 years of business experience, Naisbitt has been an executive with IBM and Eastman Kodak.

Chamber members are entitled to a special rate of $200 per individual or $175 each for groups of three or more. All participants will receive a complimentary copy of his book when it is published. Register today!
