Aloha TIM School Supporter,

On behalf of The Honorable Senator Inouye, Former First Lady Vicky Cayetano, and the University of Hawai'i's School of Travel Industry Management (TIM), we invite you to join us at our annual signature gala Celebrate a Legacy in Tourism scheduled for April 5, 2012 at the Sheraton Waikiki. Funds from the Gala event will provide scholarships for our local students, our future industry leaders.

This year, the School of Travel Industry Management is pleased to recognize Ernest Nishizaki, Executive Vice President of Kyo-ya Company, LLC as the Legacy recipient. The event will also induct Allan Lum, General Manager of Waiialea Country Club into the TIM Alumni Hall of Honor.

We kindly ask for your support through the purchase of a sponsorship level table: Platinum Sponsor ($5,000), Gold Sponsor ($3,500), or Silver Sponsor ($2,500). Platinum sponsors will have the added benefit of a named scholarship to be presented to a student the following academic year. You will find the attached table reservation form with sponsorship inclusions.

Thank you for your continued support of the University of Hawai'i School of Travel Industry Management. Your role as an industry partner continues to be vitally important to our mission. Your generous support will provide talented students with opportunities to enrich their academic experience in hospitality, tourism, and transportation management.

To reserve your table, please feel free to call Table Sales Chairman at 531-5514 or UH School of Travel Industry Management's Deborah Fitzgerald at 956-4885, or complete and mail the attached reservation form.

Thank you so much for your consideration and support for this important Travel Industry Institution.

With Warm Aloha,

Juanita C. Liu

Established in 1966, the School of Travel Industry Management boasts a rich history of innovation, growth and change with global brand recognition as a premier tourism education program that encompasses hospitality, tourism and transportation. The TIM School is the only hospitality and tourism program in a Carnegie I Research University in Hawai'i, accredited through 2015 by the Accreditation Commission for Programs in Hospitality Administration (ACPHA). The Program ranks among the top two in the nation and among top eight in the world of Tourism Education Quality (TedQual) certified programs designated by the United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO).
